

2010 Three Rivers TESOL: “Changing Worlds, changing Englishes: Meeting the needs of ELL learners everywhere.

Welcome to the 21st annual fall meeting at Clarion University of Pennsylvania, Oct 30, 2010
Conference at a Glance

Location Time	Davis 203	Davis 204
8:30-9:30	Registration & Breakfast	X
9:30-10:00	Soyoung Burke: Korean Students’ Construction of Writer Identities	Pisarn Bee Chamcharatsri; Hayat Messekher: Calling on ESL/EFL teachers to incorporate varieties of English in their teaching contexts.
10-10:30	Omar Alqadoumi: E-tutoring and the Academic ESL/EFL Writers	Claire Bradin Siskin: Meeting the Needs of English Language Learners with ESL-WOW
10:30-11	Janet Pierce: Moving Moodle into the ESL Classroom: Making an Impact on Instruction	Imad Al-Hawamdeh The use of Sony Virtuoso™ and Soloist® ASL digital language lab software in ESL classes
11:00-11:45	Plenary: Davis 203 Dr. Gloria Park Pedagogical Content & Learner Knowledge in World Englishes: A Critical Call for Raising Our Awareness and Enacting Change
12-1	Lunch on own
1-1:30	Atsushi Iida: Using Haiku in ESL contexts: Developing the sense of voice in second language	Brian Burke: “Pedagogical Successes and Mishaps in teaching culture through film”.
1:30-2	Yun Zhang: the effect of role-play in studying second language.	Bandar Al-Jafen: The Secret Components of Becoming a Reflective Teacher
2-2:30	Osman Z Barnawi: Pedagogical Tasks for Fostering Critical Transformative EFL Teachers: Pre-service EFL Teacher-educators	Mahmoud Amer What can technology do to help us better respond to ELL writers?
2:30-3	Awards Ceremony	